

Ohio Institute of Allied Health

School of Integrative Healthcare

Subject: Method of Disclosure

Policy: Method of Disclosure

The OIAH Financial Aid Office provides information through various channels, including publications such as the college's catalog, orientation handbook, web sites, constant contact student portal, e-mails and on-campus student mailbox. The OIAH financial aid officer e-mails a variety of important information to the student's primary e-mail address. OIAH will use this as the primary means for contacting students. OIAH uses the other items detailed above to notify students of any targeted or general announcements. Students may find other consumer information topics at www.oiah.edu.